

LETTER FROM THE CRISIS DIRECTOR

Howdy Delegates!

Welcome to HAMUN 52, but more specifically, Arab Spring!

My name is Toluwanimi Esther Ojifinni, I am a freshman Political Science & Finance major at Texas A&M University, but most importantly, I am the loudest and proudest member of the Fighting Texas Aggie class of 2030!

I am so excited to serve as your Crisis Director for Arab Spring at HAMUN 52. I've been doing Model UN since 8th grade. I attended HAMUN 2 times during High School, and this will be my first year working as staff. In addition, I've hosted and chaired an international conference of over 60 delegates, attended a Harvard-LAMUN Conference in Panama, and worked as an officer at my school's MUN chapter. I love Model UN, as it has taught me so much and given me so many experiences that have been invaluable throughout my academic career. I've gained long-lasting friendships and skills—something I hope all of you will gain at this conference.

Through my many months of research to prepare for this conference, I've found a special love for this committee and all the opportunities it has to offer for you as delegates.

I hope that as you prepare for and attend HAMUN 52, that you'll learn many new skills. Go out of your comfort zone, speak during debates, make friends, and most importantly—have fun! I, along with your chairs and other crisis staff, are so excited to see what creative and imaginative pathways you delegates will take over the course of this committee!

If you have any questions or need assistance, don't hesitate to ask. No question is too big or too small. Good luck and Gig 'em!
